President's Message

I don't know when it will be, but one day—possibly soon, more likely a few years from now—you will open this book and you will remember.

The photos that fill these pages will bring back conversations with friends you shared over a meal. An experience that you had forgotten will be triggered by the face of someone you went on a mission trip with. The photos of one of your professors will remind you of how much you really did learn in their classes—and of the life-lesson you will never forget due to the way they reached out to you in a moment of difficulty.

It has been a pleasure to participate, with you, in the life of our learning community this year. We have grown and matured as involved participants in this remarkable and wholly amazing reality we call our life. It is my hope that you will continue to reflect on that which you can indeed do to encourage hope in the lives of those around you.

Paul Simon is right. Our year together was indeed a remarkable gift of time. Of shared confidences, of moments that will live on forever in our memories.

Randal Wisbey
President

Time it was, and what a time it was, it was
A time of innocence, a time of confidences
Long ago, it must be, I have a photograph
Preserve your memories, they're all that's left you

*Paul Simon, Bookends Theme
from Simon and Garfunkel's Bookends

Dedication

By dedicating this yearbook to Dean Curtis, we would like to recognize 26 years of service to La Sierra University's students. You did not merely fill a staff position here; you were also a friend, mentor, student supporter, cheerleader and a mother to those who didn't have their parents close by.

We would like to thank you for inspiring change throughout the campus. Including one of your biggest contributions to the residents of Calkins, Angwin, Gladwyn, and South Hall. As insignificant as it might sound, it is thanks to you that students no longer have to endure scalding summers; you fought hard to get us all air conditioning systems. There is no doubt that you have left your imprint on the lives of the students with your servant leadership as an administrator and your balanced, fair justice.

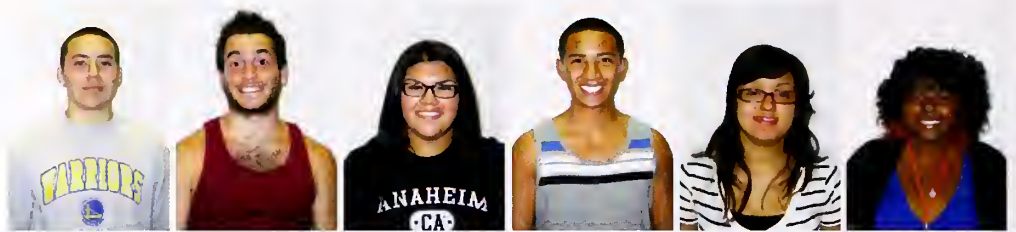

You will be missed!

Thank you for making La Sierra University a better place! You are unforgettable!

"Success is determined not by whether or not you face obstacles, but by your reaction to them. And if you look at these obstacles as a containing fence, they become your excuse for failure. If you look at them as a hurdle, each one strengthens you for the next."

“How do you make the world a better place than when you found it? You do so by realizing that you hold the keys to your own potential. So instead of listening to the world’s negativity or condescending demeanor, challenge the status quo. Dream big, and lead others to view the world differently. For when you envision not what is but what can be, that is when true change occurs.”

STUDENT LIFE

Hey La Sierra,

Thank you for making this year a success. We kicked off the year with some of our traditional favorites like Costume Skate Night and Cosmic Bowling. I tried to add in a few new favorites that would cater to different interests such as Gamer's Night where the girls danced the night away to Just Dance and the hard core rockers jammed on Guitar Hero.

The fall quarter Talent Show really took the cake with standing room only as the crowd cheered on dancers, singers, and even jugglers. Winter quarter talent show was just as much fun as we jammed to the house band and listened to a wide variety of performances including spoken word and note belting divas.

Banquet was not only a blast, but also a very special event because the attendees witnessed true love as a young man proposed to his girlfriend and she said yes! There wasn't a dry eye in the museum when he got down on one knee and asked her to be his wife.

My personal favorite was Karaoke Night because everyone let go of their inhibitions and just had fun up on stage. The clubs really stepped it up with Henna Night. With original henna designs, eyebrow threading, photo booth, and even traditional food, La Sierra really showed off how diverse we really are.

Again, thank you to all of you who came out to support not only SALSU, but the importance of community and fellowship.

Your 2011-2012 Social VP,

MISSIONS

"How do you connect a campus of 1,500 students to 15 young missionaries around the world? This was one of the tougher questions the Student Missions office asked itself at the beginning of the 2011-2012 school year. The answer?

Make all the students missionaries.

Sending students to teach, build, pull teeth, or whatever else in exotic world locations is only part of what Student Missions does. To involve the majority of La Sierra in missions, the office put on a number of activities for the school body, right here, on campus.

To show that one doesn't have to board a plane to serve others, Student Missions hosted dorm worship featuring students, faculty, and staff; ran the interactive Missions Village and Prayer Labyrinth for a week; offered post-worship "packaging parties," which allowed anyone to put together and mail care packages to La Sierra's incredible current student missionaries; and even bested a challenge to pack 10,000 meals to ship to West Africa--in only three hours! None of this would have happened without a willing and caring student body.

Student Missions, celebrating its 50th year, strives to connect the wider La Sierra campus with the few student missionaries; both have in common an emphasis on the third element of the university's mission statement: To Serve."

INDIA

The opportunity to partner with Maranatha Volunteers International came after praying and asking God to lead our efforts in finding international project for the SIFE team to work on this year. Maranatha provided lodging, drivers, translators, cooks, and even a videographer for the trip. This made our job much more simple, raise funds for SIFE to sponsor the classrooms, raise funds for team members' travel, and fill out all paperwork provided by Maranatha.

I was so blessed to have such a great group willing to take on this project. Every single one of the 9 people on the team were dedicated to the cause 100%. It didn't matter how boring our meetings to plan were, how many obstacles we faced while raising $36,000, how hot the sun was on the work site, or how many times we had to redo something we messed up during construction.

We developed a real camaraderie and the team members were so strong-willed that twice, we chose to work into the night after an 8 hour work day to complete the classrooms. After a total of 48 hours of work in four days, we were able to have an inauguration ceremony, worship, and soccer games with the school children.

After all the hard work and a fast paced week, we were rewarded with a trip to a zoological park in Bangalore where we rode bareback on elephants through a forest. Then on the flight back we had a 14 hour layover in Dubai which allowed us time to travel to the top of the Burj Khalifa, walk the beach on The Palm Island, watch the world's largest fountain show, and walk window shop in the world's largest mall. This was a trip to remember forever. I am a firm believer that through faith, anything is possible and I think this trip was a true testament to how great life can be when we let God lead. As president of the La Sierra University SIFE team, I was humbled by the way our Lord showed His presence to each of us, I was blessed by the efforts of everyone involved in this project, and I am honored to follow my God in the company of great friends at La Sierra University.

RASK@LS

Stands for Random Acts of Sabbath Kindness @ La Sierra

Once a month we have an outreach activity around our community.

This year we have done:

*Family Homeless Shelter: we helped clean-up the shelter, we had a program for the kids, we feed all the families, and we had a worship with Izraias Uribe as our Speaker

*Nursing Homes: we sang songs for the elderly, we played games with them, and had a fun photoshoot.

*Operation SafeHouse: we had visited them a couple of times this year. We usually help clean-up the garden and then play with the teenagers at the shelter. This teenagers are kids that are going through family and personal struggles so they come to this shelter to find safety and support

*Community Clean-Up

*Kids Program in San Bernardino with KidsRock from LLU: we feed the kids from the community, had a Bible story for them, and played fun games.

We have done a food drive and donated the food to homeless shelters

we have done clothes drive and donated to homeless shelters and Safehouse

We are a ministry through Sabbath School. Izraias Uribe (Director of CSS) has been a great support of RASK@LS. Our main sponsor is Linda Biswas.

Why do we decide to do this?

There are a lot of people hurting out there. There are a lot of needs around us. We don't need to go across the world to see that people need clothes, food, time, love, hope.. and I know of a God who cares about all these and more. And if my God cares about them, then I do to. "whatever you have done to the least of these, you have done to me." I can relate to all of the people we have come in contact with because I come from a broken family that has been greatly affected by addiction, poverty, and violence. And I have been supported, helped, and loved by the least expected strangers and that to me was proof of a God bigger than my brokenness and hopelessness. I'm just trying to share the hope and love I have received. We have an awesome community at LSU that are always eager to serve, so I love to provide opportunities to my friends and LSU students to serve and be part of God's love for ALL!

FINALLY! Courtney Young! my greatest inspiration

It is hard to believe that another school year has come to an end. I'm sure it has been a great experience as I've seen throughout the year all the friendships that have been formed. I must say that I feel blessed by the opportunity that I was given to produce another yearbook. I got to closely follow the students as they went through their college experience and I've learned many lessons. So I would like to thank each and every one of you.

I would like to thank my small team who made this possible. My assistants Melissa and Alexandra, you guys have been my greatest support. Also my photographers Abi and Adrian thank you for staying by my side. It was a long process, I need to say that coming up with the theme wasn't the easiest so thank you Karli. Finally, thank you student body because without you, there wouldn't be a yearbook.

I hope this yearbook can be a memory box that you can go back a few years from now and remember how awesome college was. I also hope that you got inspired to serve. For those who still have a few years to go, good luck and have fun. For those who are graduating, good luck, the fun is over.
